Hunters & Collectors

The Astral Mix

Oh! So how?

Woke up this morning from the strangest dream
I was in the biggest army the world has ever seen
We were marching as one
On the road to the Holy Grail

Started out seeking fortune and glory
It's a short song but it's a hell of a story
When you spend your lifetime trying to get your hands
On the Holy Grail

But have you heard about the great crusade?
We ran into millions and nobody got paid
Yeah, we razed four corners of the globe
For the Holy Grail

All the locals scattered. They were hiding in the snow
We were so far from home, so how were we to know
There'd be nothing left to plunder
When we stumbled on the Holy Grail

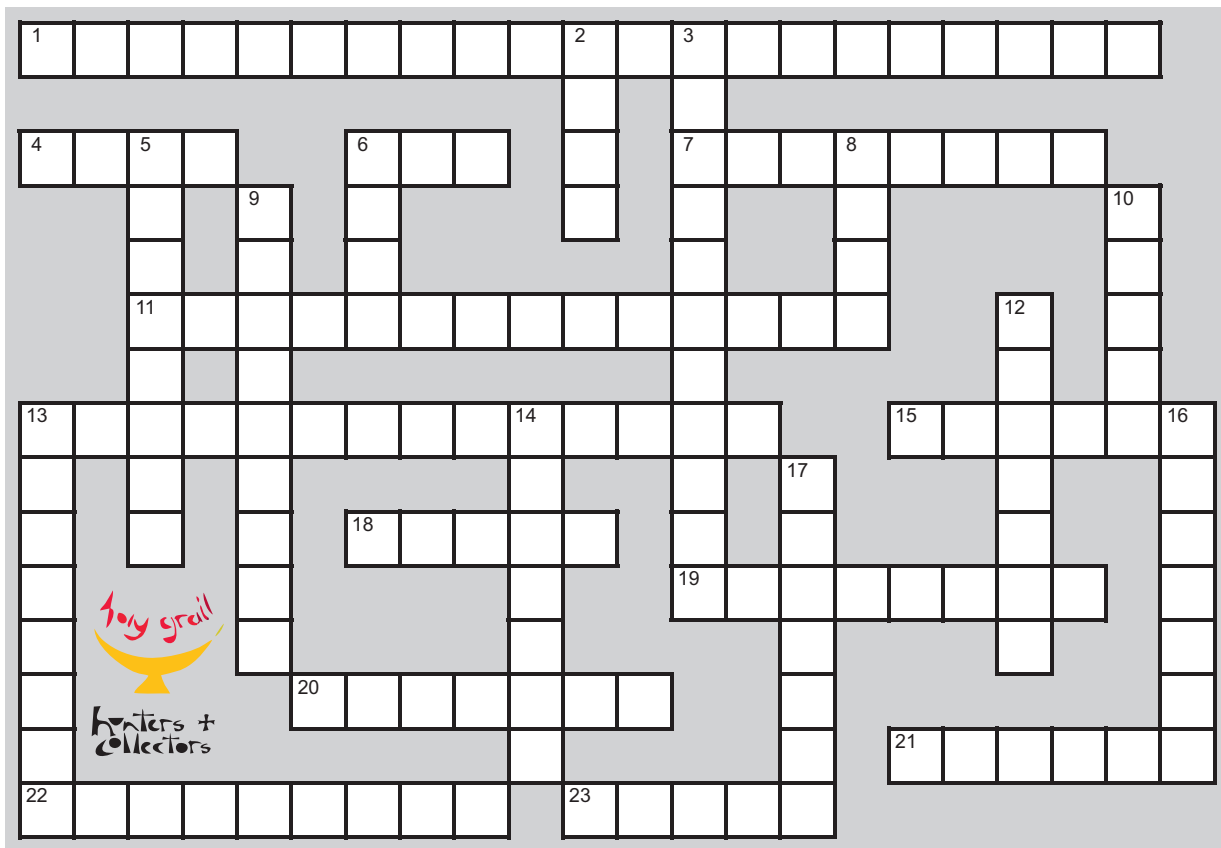

We were full of beans
But we were dying like flies
And those big black birds
They were circling in the sky
And you know what they say?
Yeah, nobody deserves to die

You know I, I've been searching for an easy way
To escape the cold light of day
I've been high and I've been low
But I got nowhere else to go
There's nowhere else to go

Oh!

I followed orders
God knows where I've been
But I woke up alone
All my wounds were clean
I'm still here
I'm still a fool for the Holy Grail
I am, I'm a fool for the Holy Grail
